

2018 Scholarship Application

The USA High School Clay Target League and its state affiliates are offering post-secondary education scholarships to student athletes that are participating in the spring season of the current year.

The objectives of the USA High School Clay Target League's Scholarship Program are to provide financial assistance for a student that is continuing his/her education after high school and to reward student athletes seeking a career in environmental sciences or natural resources conservation industries.

Eligibility

The applicant qualifies only for the scholarship offered in the respective state they participate in and must meet the following criteria (please check boxes):

Be a member of a team participating in the current spring season of a state high school clay target league in the USA High School Clay Target League, AND

Be a high school senior graduating in the current school year, AND

Demonstrate an interest in pursuing a career in the field of environmental sciences and/or conservation of our natural resources, AND

Adhere to all school district rules, policies and requirements concerning student activities including, but not limited to, attendance, conduct, scholastic standing and other eligibility requirements, AND

All required documentation must be submitted or postmarked no later than May 15, 2018.

Award Selection

The recipient is chosen from all applications based on his/her academic accomplishments, contributions to their team, involvement in school activities and their community, – without regard to family financial circumstances, college choice, gender, race, ethnic origin or religious preferences. An independent scholarship committee selected by the USA High School Clay Target League selects the winning applications.

Only qualifying applications will be considered. Any state without a qualified application will withdraw the scholarship.

Spelling and grammar are important factors when considering applications.

Award Presentation

Recipients of the scholarships will be announced on the League's website on June 1, 2018.
